Right to Information ACT, 2005

The Right to Information Act, 2005 instructs on time-based response to citizen while requesting for information on functioning of Govt. offices or institutions. This initiative is taken by the Department of Public Grievances, Ministry of Personal, Department of Personal and Training and Pensions in order to provide a RTI Portal Gateway to the citizens for quick search of information. It is mandatory to provide RTI related information to the seekers. /disclosures published on the web by various authorities under the Government of India as well as the State Governments.

Objective of the Right to Information Act:

The main objective of the Right to Information Act is to promote the transparency and accountability of the working process of the Government. The act is a good step for the citizens who seek information about the activities of government. The Act empowers the citizens as it equips them to keep vigil on the instruments of governance, thereby putting an effective check on corruption and other malpractices in the workings of the government. The authority of Chaiduar College will accept RTI petitions from the citizens according to the provisions of the act.

Some steps are to be taken to make RTI petition are laid down below:

- A Formal application is to be submitted which may be typed or hand-written, and the applicant shall write "Application under RTI Act, 2005" at the top of the envelop.
- The RTI fees should be paid in the form/ PO/DD/MO etc to the appropriate authority which is specified in the RTI.
- The applicant must furnish full name and address, contact details, email address, and sign the application clearly.
- A photocopy is to be kept for future reference. The applicant must be an Indian citizen and should make a declaration in this regard at the end of the application.
- The law instructs that the information should be provided to the seekers within 30 days. If it does not happen, an appeal addressing "The Appellate Authority" may be filed, in which case, the appellate authority is mandated to revert in 45 days from the date of receipt of the appeal. Further appeals lie with the Chief Information Officer, State/Central Information Commission.
